About the Author

Anthony Connerty is an English barrister in practice in Chambers in London, Birmingham and Leeds. He is also a consultant to French and Italian law firms in Paris and Milan. He has appeared in most English courts. His areas of practice include international trade and business law: contractual disputes; sale and carriage of goods; oil contracts; documentary credits; conflict of laws; jurisdiction disputes, etc.

Mr Connerty acts as counsel and sits as arbitrator in both domestic and international arbitrations – International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), American Arbitration Association (AAA) and ad hoc (including arbitration under the UNCITRAL Rules) – in claims involving hundreds of millions of US dollars. He has a particular interest in oil and gas. He is a long-time member of the Energy Institute (formerly the Institute of Petroleum) and has spoken at meetings organised in Shanghai and Qatar by the World Petroleum Congress (now the World Petroleum Council). He also has a great interest in China and is one of the few UK members of the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC) in Beijing.

In addition, Mr Connerty is a Chartered Arbitrator, a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, a Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators, and a panel member of various international arbitration bodies including, as well as CIETAC, the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, the UN's World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), the Cairo Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration, the American Arbitration Association's International Panel, the Lagos Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration and the Energy Arbitrator's List. He is a Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR)-accredited mediator and acts as counsel and as mediator in commercial mediations. He has lectured on arbitration and other dispute resolution processes in Britain, Europe, Africa, the Middle East and Asia. In May 2005 Mr Connerty spoke on domestic and international arbitration and acted as sole arbitrator at a mock international commercial arbitration at the Lagos Regional Centre for International Commercial Arbitration in which leading members of the Nigerian Bar participated.

Mr Connerty was the Chairman of the Organising Committee for a two-day Conference on Dispute Resolution in the Oil and Gas Industries, which was held at the Guildhall in the City of London in 2004. The Keynote Speaker was HRH The Duke of Kent.

Mr Connerty's articles on international dispute resolution – with an emphasis on oil and gas – have been published in various journals worldwide. Some of his articles on China have been translated into Mandarin.
