

Acknowledgements

The authors are grateful to the Commonwealth Secretariat for bringing out the publication, which provides needed information on issues in fiscal policy implementation, trends in monetary policy formulation, implementation, and transmission mechanisms to the staff of the region's central banks, financial sector institutions, policy-makers, public leaders and academics. The authors wish to thank Ms Constance Vigilance, in particular, for her guidance at all stages of the study as well as comments on the final report and constructive suggestions for improving the usefulness of the study.
