SURVEY OF
EXTRADITION AND FUGITIVE OFFENDERS LEGISLATION AS BETWEEN COMMONWEALTH JURISDICTIONS

Introduction

The legislation contained in this Survey is set out in three Schedules. Schedule I deals with the extradition or fugitive offenders legislation of those Commonwealth countries which have legislated as a result of the Commonwealth Law Officers' Conference, 1966 and of those to which the United Kingdom post-1966 legislation was extended by United Kingdom Order in Council but which have attained independence since. Schedule II deals with the legislation of Commonwealth countries to which United Kingdom post-1966 legislation has been applied by United Kingdom Order in Council but have not yet attained independence. Schedule III deals with those Commonwealth countries which have not passed any legislation as a direct result of the Conference and to which the United Kingdom's post-1966 legislation has not been extended. The 1966 Commonwealth Scheme is reproduced as Schedule IV. The main object of the Survey is to indicate the extent to which that Scheme has been implemented in Commonwealth countries. In this context details of extradition arrangements involving non-Commonwealth countries are not strictly relevant but since some reference to them has appeared in previous editions of the Survey such references have, in the main, been retained although in abbreviated form, for convenience.

The serial numbers of the items set out in column 2 of Schedules I, II and III refer to the corresponding numbers set out in column 1.

As far as the designation or declaration of countries for the purposes of extradition or fugitive offenders is concerned, there is no uniformity of practice among the various states. The position as regards the designation or declaration of Commonwealth countries, where known, is set out in the second column of Schedules I, II and III.

Many Commonwealth countries have two separate Acts or Ordinances on the subject of extradition and fugitive offenders - one relating to Commonwealth countries and the other to foreign countries. In those cases where the same basic Act covers both fields, the extent of its applicability to Commonwealth countries is usually mentioned.

As between former British colonies, the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, of the United Kingdom used to apply. On attaining independence some countries repealed this Act and replaced it with legislation which applies to Commonwealth and non-Commonwealth countries alike. Such legislation often includes, therefore, under the title "Extradition Act" topics which are dealt with in the United Kingdom and elsewhere under the separate headings of Extradition and Fugitive Offenders. A Note on legal costs arising out of extradition proceedings appears behind Schedule IV.

The first revision of this memorandum was prepared in June 1971 and circulated by the Legal Division of the Commonwealth Secretariat to all governments of the Commonwealth, independent and dependent, for their comments. A number of replies were received submitting amendments and additions to Schedules I and II. These, and other amendments and additions obtained as a result of updating research in the various law libraries in London, were incorporated in the previous revision of 1977. The present revision, prepared in 1982, embodies amendments to the 1977 revision notified by the Legal Division of the Commonwealth Secretariat following a circularisation of all Commonwealth governments together with other amendments and additions resulting from research carried out in London.

While every attempt has been made to provide a full, accurate, and up-to-date list of the legislation of all Commonwealth countries on this subject, it should be noted that some of such legislation is not available in the United Kingdom.

SCHEDULE 1

EXTRADITION OR FUGITIVE OFFENDERS LEGISLATION OF COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE LEGISLATED ON THE SUBJECT SINCE THE COMMONWEALTH LAW OFFICERS' CONFERENCE, 1966, OR TO WHICH THE UNITED KINGDOM POST-1966 LEGISLATION WAS EXTENDED BY UNITED KINGDOM ORDER IN COUNCIL AND HAVE SINCE ATTAINED INDEPENDENCE.

Note: As regards costs see Appendix

- (1) Extradition Act 1966 (No.87 of 1966) as amended by the Extradition (Amendment) Act 1970 (No.49 of 1970).

- (1) Formerly cited as the Extradition Decree 1966 until redesignated by the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria (Redesignation of Decrees) Order 1980 (S.I. No.13 of 1980). The Act repealed the United Kingdom Extradition Acts 1870 to 1932 as part of the law of Nigeria and the Extradition Act (Cap.65) and the Fugitive Criminals Act (Cap. 73) of Nigeria. The Act is applicable to Commonwealth and non-Commonwealth countries. Section 2 provides:

"2 (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, this Act shall apply to every separate country within the Commonwealth.

(2) For the purposes of this Act each of the following areas shall be treated as constituting a separate country within the Commonwealth, that is to say -

- (a) each sovereign and independent country within the Commonwealth together with such (if any) of that country's dependent territories as the President may by order published in the Federal Gazette designate as forming part of that country for the purposes of this Act; and
- (b) each country within the Commonwealth which, not being sovereign and independent, is not a territory for the time being designated under paragraph (a) above as forming part of some other country for the purposes of the Act.

(3) An order under subsection (2) (a) above designating a dependent territory as forming part of a sovereign and independent country shall be made if, but only if, that country has signified to the Government of the Federation that it desires that territory to be so designated for the purposes of this Act.

(4) If it appears to the President that the law of a country to which this Act applies by virtue of subsection (1) above no longer contains provisions substantially equivalent to the provisions of this Act, as it applies to

President may by order published in the Federal Gazette direct that this Act shall apply in relation to that country with such modifications (whether by way of addition, alteration or omission) as may be specified in the order; and where an order under this subsection is in force with respect to any country, this Act shall have effect in relation to that country with the modification specified in the order.

(5) In the case of a country to which this Act applies by virtue of subsection (1) above, that fact shall not prevent an order from being made under section 1(1) of this Act in respect of that country if an extradition agreement is made with that country, and on the coming into force of an order under section 1(1) of this Act in respect of such a country, this section shall cease to apply to that country and any order made under subsection (4) above in respect of that country shall cease to have effect."

SCHEDULE IV

SCHEME RELATING TO THE RENDITION OF FUGITIVE OFFENDERS WITHIN THE COMMONWEALTH.

SCOPE

1. (1) The general provisions set out in this Scheme will govern the return of a person from one part of the Commonwealth, in which he is found, to another part thereof, in which he is accused of an offence; and in particular his return will only be precluded by law, or be subject to refusal by the competent executive authority, in the circumstances mentioned in this Scheme.

(2) For the purposes of this Scheme a person liable to return as mentioned in paragraph (1) is described as a fugitive offender and each of the following areas is described as constituting a separate part of the Commonwealth, that is to say -

- (a) each sovereign and independent country within the Commonwealth together with any dependent territories (which expression, for the purposes aforesaid, includes protectorates and protected states) which that country designates, and
- (b) each country within the Commonwealth, which, though not sovereign and independent, is not a territory designated for the purposes of the preceding sub-paragraph.

RETURNABLE OFFENCES

2. (1) A fugitive will only be returned for a returnable offence.

(2) For the purposes of this Scheme a returnable offence is an offence described in Annex 1 (whatever the name of the offence under the law of the countries and territories concerned, and whether or not it is described in that law by reference to some special intent or any special circumstances of aggravation), being an offence which is punishable by a competent court in the country or territory to which return is requested by imprisonment for twelve months or a greater penalty.

WARRANTS, OTHER THAN PROVISIONAL WARRANTS

3. (1) A fugitive offender will only be returned if a warrant for his arrest has been issued in that part of the Commonwealth to which his return is requested and either -

- (a) that warrant is endorsed by a competent judicial authority in the part in which he is found (in which case, the endorsed warrant will be sufficient authority for his arrest), or
- (b) A further warrant for his arrest is issued by the competent judicial authority in the part in which he is found, not being a provisional warrant issued as mentioned in clause 4.

(2) The endorsement or issue of a warrant as mentioned in this clause may be made conditional on the competent executive authority having previously issued an order to proceed.

PROVISIONAL WARRANTS

4. (1) Where a fugitive offender is, or is suspected of being, in or on his way to any part of the Commonwealth but no warrant has been endorsed as mentioned in clause 3(1) (a) or issued as mentioned in clause 3(1) (b), the competent judicial authority in that part of the Commonwealth may issue a provisional warrant for his arrest on such information and under such circumstances as would, in the authority's opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the returnable offence of which the fugitive is accused had been an offence committed within that authority's jurisdiction.

(2) A report of the issue of such a provisional warrant, together with the information in justification or a certified copy thereof, will be sent to the competent executive authority and, in a case in which that authority decides on the said information and any other information which may have become available that the fugitive should be discharged, that authority may so order.

COMMITTAL PROCEEDINGS

5. (1) A fugitive offender arrested under a warrant endorsed or issued as mentioned in clause 3(1), or under a provisional warrant issued as mentioned in clause 4, will be brought, as soon as is practicable, before the competent judicial authority who will hear the case in the same manner and have the same jurisdiction and powers, as nearly as may be, including power to remand and admit to bail, as if the fugitive were charged with an offence committed within that authority's jurisdiction.

(2) The competent judicial authority will receive any evidence which may be tendered to show that the return of the fugitive offender is precluded by law.

(3) Where a provisional warrant has been issued as mentioned in clause 4 but, within such reasonable time as with reference to the circumstances of the case the competent judicial authority may fix -

- (a) a warrant has not been endorsed or issued as mentioned in clause 3(1), or
- (b) where such endorsement or issue of a warrant has been made conditional on the issue of an order to proceed, as mentioned in clause 3(2), no such order has been issued, the competent judicial authority will order the fugitive to be discharged.

(4) Where a warrant has been endorsed or issued as mentioned in clause 3(1) the competent judicial authority may commit the fugitive to prison to await his return if -

- (a) such evidence is produced as establishes a prima facie case that he committed the offence of which he is accused, and
- (b) his return is not precluded by law, but, otherwise, will order him to be discharged.

(5) Where a fugitive offender is committed to prison to await his return as mentioned in the preceding paragraph, notice of the fact will forthwith be given to the competent executive authority in that part of the Commonwealth in which he is committed.

RETURN OR DISCHARGE BY EXECUTIVE AUTHORITY

6. After the expiry of 15 days from the date of the committal of a fugitive offender to prison to await his return, as mentioned in clause 5, for, if a writ of habeas corpus or other like process is issued with reference to him, from the date of the final decision thereon of the competent judicial authority (whichever date is the later), the competent executive authority will order his return unless it appears to that authority that, in accordance with the provisions set out in this Scheme, his return is precluded by law or should be refused, in which case that authority will order his discharge.

DISCHARGE BY JUDICIAL AUTHORITY

7. (1) Where after the expiry of the period mentioned in paragraph (2) a fugitive offender has not been returned, an application to the competent judicial authority may be made by or on behalf of the fugitive for his discharge and if -

- (a) reasonable notice of the application has been given to the competent executive authority, and
- (b) sufficient cause for the delay is not shown, the competent judicial authority will order his discharge.

(2) The period referred to in paragraph (1) will be prescribed by law and will be one expiring either -

- (a) not later than two months from the fugitive's committal to prison as mentioned in clause 5, or
- (b) not later than one month from the date of the order for his return made as mentioned in clause 6.

HABEAS CORPUS

8. It will be provided that an application may be made by or on behalf of a fugitive offender for a writ of habeas corpus or other like process.

CIRCUMSTANCES PRECLUDING RETURN

9. (1) The return of a fugitive offender will be precluded by law if the competent judicial or executive authority is satisfied that the offence is of a political character.

(2) The return of a fugitive offender will be precluded by law if it appears to the competent judicial or executive authority -

- (a) that the request for his surrender although purporting to be made for a returnable offence was in fact made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing the person on account of his race, religion, nationality or political opinions, or
- (b) that he may be prejudiced at his trial or punished, detained or restricted in his personal liberty by reason of his race, religion, nationality or political opinions.

(3) The return of a fugitive offender, or his return before the expiry of a specified period, will be precluded by law if the competent judicial or executive authority is satisfied that by reason of -

- (a) the trivial nature of the case, or
- (b) the accusation against the fugitive not having been made in good faith or in the interests of justice or,
- (c) the passage of time since the commission of the offence, it would, having regard to all the circumstances under which the offence was committed, be unjust or oppressive or too severe a punishment to return the fugitive or, as the case may be, to return him before the expiry of a period specified by that authority.

(4) The return of a fugitive offender will be precluded by law if the competent judicial or executive authority is satisfied that he has been convicted (and is neither unlawfully at large nor at large in breach of a condition of a licence to be at large), or has been acquitted, whether within or outside the Commonwealth, of the offence of which he is accused.

(5) The competent authorities for the purposes of this clause will include -

- (a) any judicial authority which hears or is competent to hear such an application as is mentioned in clause 8, and
- (b) the executive authority by whom any order for the fugitive's return would fall to be made.

(6) It will be sufficient compliance with any one of the paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) if a country decides that the competent authority for the purposes of that paragraph is exclusively the judicial authority or the executive authority.

- (7) If the competent executive authority -
  - (a) is empowered by law to certify that the offence of which a fugitive offender is accused is an offence of a political character, and
  - (b) in the case of a particular fugitive offender, so certifies, the certificate will be conclusive in the matter and binding upon the competent judicial authority for the purposes mentioned in this clause.

DOUBLE - CRIMINALITY RULE

10. The return of a fugitive offender will either be precluded by law or be subject to refusal by the competent executive authority if the facts on which the request for his return is grounded do not constitute an offence under the law of the country or territory in which he is found.

POSTPONEMENT OF RETURN OF FUGITIVE CHARGED OR SENTENCED WHEN FOUND

- 11. Where a fugitive offender -
  - (a) has been charged with an offence triable by a court in that part of the Commonwealth in which he is found, or
  - (b) is serving a sentence imposed by a court in that part of the Commonwealth, then, until such time as he has been discharged (whether by acquittal, the expiration or remission of his sentence, or otherwise) his return will either be precluded by law or be subject to refusal by the competent executive authority as the law of the country or territory concerned may provide.

PRIORITY WHERE TWO OR MORE REQUESTS MADE

12. Where requests for the return of a fugitive offender to two or more parts of the Commonwealth fall to be dealt with at the same time, the competent executive authority will determine to which part he should be returned and, accordingly, may refuse the other requests; and in determining the matter that authority will consider all the circumstances of the case and in particular -

- (a) the relative seriousness of the offences,
- (b) the relative dates on which the requests were made, and
- (c) the citizenship or other national status of the fugitive and his ordinary residence.

SPECIALITY RULE

13. (1) This clause relates to a fugitive offender who has been returned from one part of the Commonwealth to another part thereof, so long as he has not had a reasonable opportunity of going back to the first mentioned part.

(2) In the case of a fugitive offender to whom this clause relates, his detention or trial in the part of the Commonwealth to which he has been returned for any offence committed prior to his return (other than the one for which he was returned or any lesser offence proved by the facts on which that return was grounded or, with the consent of the requested country or territory, a returnable offence of the same nature as the offence for which he was returned) will be precluded by law.

(3) The reference in paragraph (2) to detention includes a reference to detention for the purposes of any proceedings for returning or surrendering the fugitive offender to any country or territory for trial or punishment and, accordingly in the case of a fugitive to whom this clause relates such return or surrender will be precluded by law if the offence for which his return or surrender is requested is such an offence as is mentioned in paragraph (2).

RETURN OF ESCAPED PRISONERS

14. (1) In the case of a person who -

- (a) has been convicted of a returnable offence by a court in any part of the Commonwealth and is unlawfully at large before the expiry of his sentence for that offence, and
- (b) is found in some other part of the Commonwealth, the provisions set out in this Scheme, as applied for the purposes of this clause by paragraph (2), will govern his return to the part of the Commonwealth in which he was convicted.

(2) For the purposes of this clause this Scheme shall be construed, subject to any necessary adaptations or modifications, as though the person unlawfully at large were accused of the offence of which he was convicted and, in particular -

- (a) any reference to a fugitive offender shall be construed as including a reference to such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (1), and
- (b) the reference in clause 5(4) to such evidence as establishes a prima facie case that he committed the offence of which he is accused shall be construed as a reference to such evidence as establishes that he has been convicted.

(3) The references in this clause to a person unlawfully at large shall be construed as including reference to a person at large in breach of a condition of a licence to be at large.

ANCILLIARY PROVISIONS

15. Each Commonwealth country or territory will take, subject to its constitution, any legislative and other steps which may be necessary or expedient in the circumstances to facilitate and effectuate -

- (a) the return of a fugitive offender who is in transit in its territory for that purpose,
- (b) the delivery of property found in the possession of a fugitive offender at the time of his arrest which may be material evidence of the offence of which he is accused, and
- (c) the proof of warrants, certificates of conviction, depositions and other documents.

ALTERNATIVE ARRANGEMENTS AND MODIFICATIONS

16. Nothing in this Scheme shall prevent -

- (a) the making of arrangements between two or more parts of the Commonwealth for further or alternative provision for the return of offenders,
- (b) the application of the Scheme with modifications by any part of the Commonwealth in relation to any other part which has not brought clauses 1 to 15 fully into effect.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

17. Any part of the Commonwealth may or may not adopt either or both of the supplementary provisions set out in Annex 2 but, where such a provision is adopted, any other part of the Commonwealth may in relation to the first part reserve its position as to whether it will give effect to clauses 1 to 15 or will give effect to them subject to such exceptions and modifications as appear to it to be necessary or expedient or give effect to any arrangement made under clause 16(a).

ANNEX 2

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

DISCRETION AS RESPECTS RETURN FOR OFFENCES PUNISHABLE BY DEATH

1. The return of a fugitive offender may be refused by the competent executive authority where it appears to that authority that, by reason that -
  - (a) if he was returned he would be like to suffer the death penalty for the offence for which his return is requested, and
  - (b) in the country or territory in which he is found or in any part thereof that offence is not punishable by death, it would, having regard to all the circumstances of the case and to any likelihood that if not returned he would be immune from punishment, be unjust or oppressive or too severe a punishment to return him.

DISCRETION AS RESPECTS RETURN OF CITIZENS ETC.

2. (1) The return of a fugitive offender who is a national or permanent resident of the part of the Commonwealth in which he is found -

(a) may be precluded by law, or

(b) may be refused by the competent executive authority:

Provided that return will not be so refused if the fugitive is also a national of that part of the Commonwealth to which his return is requested.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph a fugitive shall be treated as a national of a part of the Commonwealth if that part consists of, or includes -

(a) a Commonwealth country of which he is a citizen, or

(b) a country or territory his connection with which determines his national status, in either case at the date of the request.

NOTE ON LEGAL COSTS ARISING OUT OF EXTRADITION AND FUGITIVE OFFENDERS PROCEEDINGS

Particulars of legislation, case-law or State-practice regarding the legal costs of extradition and fugitive offenders proceedings in certain Commonwealth countries.

AUSTRALIA

It has for some time been the Australian practice to offer the services of the Crown Solicitor to represent requesting countries in extradition proceedings, including any proceedings by way of appeal or review. In consequence, the costs and disbursements incurred are borne by the Australian Government. The usual practice is for an officer of the Deputy Crown Solicitor's Office in the State or Territory where the application is made to appear for the requesting country. Alternatively the Crown Solicitor will brief counsel if that course appears to be desirable. This practice is largely based upon reciprocity of treatment and is liable to be varied in the event of a particular country being unwilling to make similar arrangements for, or to meet the costs of, legal representation when Australia makes a request.

The treaties recently negotiated with Sweden, the United States of America, Israel and Italy have express provisions as regards legal costs to be borne by the requested country. That is not, however, the case with Austria. The treaties negotiated with Sweden, the United States of America, Austria, Italy and Israel are all in force by virtue of the Statutory Rules enumerated in Schedule 1 to this Survey.

BARBADOS

Although legislative provisions regarding extradition make no mention of legal costs, State practice in extradition proceedings is described as follows:

"The fugitive offender is brought to trial on a magistrate's warrant for which no fee is required. But expenses are required for briefing and obtaining the services of an Attorney-at-law in connection with the trial. Current practice requires the requesting State to meet these expenses. In an effort to ensure payment, the requesting State is required to give an undertaking at the time of requisition.

"In the event there are habeas corpus proceedings the requesting State may also be required to pay the necessary court fees in accordance with Order 54 Rule 2 of the Supreme Court Rules. But if there is any existing treaty arrangement providing for exemption of fees in these matters, this will be facilitated by Order 54, Rule 3.

There are no concrete cases arising out of the definition."

LESOTHO

Since the Act of 1967, Lesotho entertained one extradition request made by Swaziland in 1972. A problem arose after surrender and trial - the fugitive was found guilty in Swaziland but was given a suspended sentence and permitted to return to Lesotho - as to who should bear the costs of repatriation. The problem was solved through the good offices of the British High Commission and the Bail money standing in the name of the fugitive in Lesotho.

Another question posed is whether any procedure exists to enforce the suspended sentence if the condition of release should be breached?

NEW ZEALAND

According to New Zealand the Extradition Act makes no mention of legal costs, therefore the question of costs would be disposed of in accordance with the terms of the relevant treaty. The only treaty concluded by New Zealand in this respect is with the U.S.A. Concluded in 1970 the Treaty provides that expenses relating to transportation of the person sought shall be paid by the requesting Party and that appropriate legal officers of the country in which extradition proceedings take place shall, by all legal means within their power assist the officers of the requesting Party before the respective judges and magistrates.

NIGERIA

Under section 1(1) of the Extradition Act, 1966, as amended, Nigeria has entered into agreements on Extradition with the Republic of Liberia and the U.S.A.

Art. 16 of the Extradition Treaty with Liberia provides for:

"All expenses connected with Extradition shall be borne by the demanding State".

Art. 13 of the Treaty with U.S.A. also provides that:

"All expenses connected with the Extradition shall be borne by the High Contracting Party making the application".

TONGA

As regards legal costs, Tonga expressed its inability to comment until bilateral treaties were concluded between Tonga and other countries. However, attention has been drawn to the procedure for arrest and committal in the Extradition Act being similar to criminal prosecutions in which the costs involved are borne by the Government of Tonga with exception of costs for the repatriation of the offender which is expected to be borne by the requesting State.

UNITED KINGDOM

The treaty with Switzerland provides for that country, if it so wishes, to be represented in United Kingdom proceedings by the Law Officers of the Crown in return for similar facilities in Switzerland.

Treaties with certain other foreign States require the requested Party to make all necessary arrangements for and meet the cost of representation of the requesting Party in any proceedings arising out of a request for extradition. Such arrangements have been agreed with Austria, Denmark, Finland, the Federal Republic of Germany, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden and the United States of America.

Arrangements have been made between England and Wales and a number of Commonwealth countries (Australia, Barbados, Canada, Cyprus, Ghana, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, Kenya, Malta, Nauru, New Zealand and Swaziland) for the requested State to arrange and meet the cost of legal representation on behalf of the requesting State. Similar arrangements have not been necessary for Scotland where the requesting State is represented without charge by the Lord Advocate (the Chief Public Prosecutor) or on his behalf by his local prosecutors, the Procurators Fiscal.

Since 1969 non-statutory arrangements have existed with the Republic of Ireland whereby the Attorney-General of the Republic of Ireland represents United Kingdom interests in any extradition proceedings in the Republic and the Director of Public Prosecutions undertakes a reciprocal service in any habeas corpus proceedings in England and Wales under the Backing of Warrants (Republic of Ireland) Act, 1965. Similar reciprocal services in Scotland are offered and undertaken by the Lord Advocate.
